Re: David G Wallace, Jr., 15-31594-H4-7

Dear Sir:

I am getting a lot of mail in the above-reference case, from the Court, from Debtor's counsel, and most recently from Creditors' counsel.

Shortly after the case was filed I wrote Debtor's counsel suggesting the name and address of another Steven Bain, an attorney who has offices in southern Texas.

It is little burden for me to continue to discard mail received in this case. As a bankruptcy practitioner, I think it is a shame that the rights and obligations of the parties in the case may be affected by a matter as simple as an incorrect address.

However, I cannot take responsibility for those rights and obligations. Please feel free to forward this letter wherever you think it may be useful, or even file it in the case under the Correspondence event.

Very truly yours,

Steven C. Bain
